The Hilton Head Island Computer Club (HHICC) is an educational organization. The Resource Center is staffed by Volunteers dedicated to sharing their love and knowledge of computers. The skill levels and experiences of these Volunteers are broad and vary from person to person. However, the goal of each Volunteer is the same: to help members increase their understanding of computers and computer-related issues and, thereby, improve their computer-related skills. The Resource Center is NOT a substitute for a local computer shop. HHICC is NOT an authorized service dealer and it is NOT staffed by certified hardware and software technicians.
